Co-founded by Bonnie Shiffler-Olsen and Trish Hopkinson in January, 2015, Rock Canyon Poets boasts diverse membership. The ethnically rich group ranges in 18 to 70 years in age, and represents many backgrounds. Experience ranges from creative writing degrees, MFAs, literary journal founders and editors, military service, business professionals, professors, counselors, a playwright, and a periodontist. Individually, these poets have received an array of local and national awards, and are published in a variety of magazines, anthologies, and literary journals, including several chapbooks and/or full-length books of poetry.
